This is a dance session for contact improvisation.

Warm up led by Michelle Azdajic followed with a contact improv jam. Live musical accompaniment by Malcolm Atkins.

Explore the landscape of dreams and its common imagery as catalyst for the flow of contact, movement and communication with others. All are welcome including those not at Oxford University and beginners. No previous experience needed.

Please wear loose clothing in which you can move freely and bring a water bottle. Session is in the multi-purpose room in the basement. Please ask at reception if necessary.
